Benefits of Online Guidance Sessions

Online guidance session structure based on below factors-

Accessibility

Online counselling is easily accessible to all those who wish to use it. The time taken to book an appointment is equal to connecting a career expert so, without waiting just connect to a career counselor in real time.

Convenience

Everything is available at your fingertips, no need to waste any time in travelling to the counselling center.

Affordability

Web counselling has been shown to be more economical for both the therapist and the client. The whole information about the product and process is available in the website so, you don't have to ask anything to anyone.

What Other Students have to say about our Online Counselling Services

---

Virender Singh Ruhlyan

Abroad Shiksha's services were so comprehensive that every format and document was taken care of into great detail. It was good. It made it easier to get counselling sessions online. Good for students who do not have much time to explore."

Angana Gogoi

"It's difficult to express how happy I am with Abroad Shiksha Online Counselling services. I don't think I would have made it through because I belong to Guwahati, but they helped me a lot. The best thing about it was feeling that I was being listened to."

Savio Varghese

"I find AbroadShiksha Online Counselling sessions very useful. I thought about going out and exploring more where I feel that I don't have sufficient time to go every individual counselor because of my work but they helped me to get through it."
